- All students must wear a collared and/or crew neck top with sleeves. Collared shirts with more than two buttons (unbuttoned) may be worn over a crewneck t-shirt (no camisoles for female students)
 - shirts must cover midriffs
 - jackets are allowed to be worn
 - hoodies are considered jackets
- All pants should be khaki style or jeans with no flaws.
 - khaki style includes tan, blue, brown, and black
 - cargo and corduroy style will be allowed
 - no holes, tears, frays, patches, etc...
- All shorts/skirts should touch the knee with no flaws.
- No sportswear – gym shorts, sweat pants, etc. – is acceptable attire.
- Pants are to be worn at the waistline and should not drag on the floor – shoes should be visible when the student is standing.
- Proper undergarments must be worn and not be visible.
- Leggings are not acceptable attire.
- Piercings are limited to ears.

Clothes, buttons, backpacks, purses, etc... with questionable slogans are not appropriate school wear. Questionable slogans include, but are not limited to, tobacco alcohol-drug advertisements; use of profanity or sexual connotations; any type of clothing, apparel, or accessory which denotes student's membership in, or affiliation with, any gang associated with criminal activities.

The following are not allowed and should not be visible:

Any body piercing other than ears; sweatbands, bandannas, combs; chains worn from the belt or wallet; body or facial painting; large chains worn around neck or wrist; spiked necklaces and bracelets; grills worn on teeth; sunglasses, caps, or hats inside the building. If any of these items are visible they could be taken up and have parent pick-up.

Shoes must be worn at all times.

Hair color other than natural human colors and multi-colored hair are not permissible. Hair should not be worn in spikes. Mohawk hair styles are not allowed. Any dress or hairstyle that detracts from the educational environment will not be tolerated.

Discipline Guidelines for Dress-Code Violations: Dress Code begins when you step foot on campus

- Every offender spends the remainder of the day in ISS.
